

St. Bernadette Academy

The Best Investment in Your Child's Future!

St. Bernadette Catholic Academy in Dyker Heights is a National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence that thrives both spiritually and academically, while offering a strong Catholic academic environment.

The academy values academic achievement and reaches to exceed standards in all areas, giving every student the opportunity to reach their potential. St. Bernadette provides studies in a Next Generation-based curriculum as well as classes in Italian, technology, art, music and physical education.

The academy facilitates two amazing state-of-the-art science labs and STEM curriculum that offers hands-on learning experiences for our students. The academy is extremely proud to offer eighth-grade students the opportunity to participate in honors math and history courses and exams which will apply New York State Regents credit to their high school academic records.

Extracurricular activities provide students with opportunities to develop leadership skills, interests, and personal talent. Students can participate in various clubs, including: band, violin, robotics, Mathletics, book club, handbells, photography and so much more!

Gifted students who thrive on academic challenges engage in math, history, geography, and spelling bees, in addition to being recognized via the John Hopkins Search for Talented Youth and the Junior National Young Leaders Conference. A dynamic Student Council organizes events and gatherings and the stellar Home Academy Association provides families with parent volunteer opportunities and amazing social events throughout the school year.

The academy is very proud of its Class of 2018! Graduates earned over $663,000 in high school scholarships and were accepted by the following schools: Bishop Kearney, Bishop Moore Catholic (Fl.), Brooklyn Technical, Chaminade, Fiorello H. LaGuardia, Fontbonne Hall Academy, Joffrey Ballet Dance Academy, Msgr. Farrell, Moore Catholic, Notre Dame School of Manhattan, St. Edmund Prep, St. Joseph By-the-Sea, St. Joseph Hill, St. Saviour, Staten Island Technical, Leon M. Goldstein, Xaverian, and Xavier.

St. Francis of Assisi Academy

Empowering Students to Create a Peaceful Society

St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Academy, located in the Prospect/Lefferts Gardens area of Flatbush, has educated children for more than 100 years in the Catholic tradition of excellence.

The academy believes that the intellectual, affective, social and physical spheres are woven together in the fabric of the whole person. And faith formation enables students to develop a deeper understanding of the teachings of Jesus.

St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Academy follows the New York State curriculum for core subjects (math, English language arts, science and social studies) and is committed to enhancing its educational program with physical education, art and music.

Participation in the Performing Arts School Residency Program enables students to learn film making in fourth grade, play writing and producing in sixth grade, and Shakespeare study and performance in eighth grade. Students' talents are also displayed at the annual Christmas and spring shows.

Faculty and staff organize and run various clubs after school during the year. Dance, basketball, baking, martial arts, arts and crafts are some examples.

Technology is provided and updated to enhance the learning experience. A computer room with personal computers provides students with a location for weekly technology classes and classrooms are equipped with interactive whiteboards. Grades four through eight are equipped with one-to-one Chromebooks in class, and Google Education is used on a daily basis.

Students graduate St. Francis equipped with strong study skills, time-management and note-taking techniques that prepare them for high school and college. Graduates who move on to Catholic high schools often receive scholarships.

The staff consists of dedicated educators and the academy has been blessed with the continual presence of the Sisters of St. Joseph since the school opened in 1909. Dedicated to St. Francis of Assisi, peace education is integral to the program. Students are instructed to act as peer mediators, classes include a focus on conflict resolution and non-violent behavior.

Tuition assistance is available through the Diocese of Brooklyn and the St. Francis of Assisi Alumni Scholarship Program.
